Artists Portfolio Review/Conference with Stephanie Chateau	Let's plan a 2020 Art Show together! Are you an artist looking to get more eyes on your work and sell more of your work? Do you feel limited in your space or exposure by having to stay sitting at your Artist Alley table all weekend at shows? Stephanie Chateau and Heather Scott are looking to expand Realms Con's event offerings in 2020 by directing an interactive Art Gallery for both 2D and 3D art. If you would like to get into this show, please bring your work and ideas to this special work shop and let's get planning artists!
Attitude Era of Anime By: DJs Sephi Hakubi and Gilbert Carrizales	Most of today's fans consist of otakus who grew up in the Golden Age of Anime in America when tapes were traded, laserdiscs were ordered from Japan, and the content was ultraviolent, ultrasexy, and ultraexpensive with only 2 episodes per $100 volume (subtitles not included). Around the time we could get our anime from a place called Suncoast or require DSL to see unreleased fanubs from Japan and the biggest anime cons that you can think of today were more humble and intimate back then, when there was no such thing as "cos-famous", friends used message boards to arrange meetups, and "Cosplay Is Not Consent" was not something that had to be said. It was already common sense. Sephi and Arne Hakubi spend an hour talking about what it's like being a Generation Y anime fan and shares some relics from the past to bring back the nostalgia.

Danganronpa V3 Q&A By: Emili Bustillos	Hi Realmscon! I am here back again with another Danganronpa Panel. This year I would like to do a panel with the latest Danganronpa game, V3. Here is what the panel would consist of-Cosplayers from the game Danganronpa V3 and answering questions as the characters. The audience will have the chance to ask questions directly to the V3 cast of characters and in character responses from the cosplayers. Half way through the panel, we will do a small mini game called Hangman's Gambit that is essentially the Danganronpa Version of Hangman. Afterward, we would take more questions before ending the panel with a possible game of "Who is most likely to" where we, the panelists, ask an audience member who they think is most likely to do the given thing.
